August 2nd, 2015

Vocation of the Priest

St. John Vianney made the following observation.
In all the key spiritual moments in our lives, who is present?

Baptism? Usually it is the priest who God uses as the instrument to transform that child into a son/daughter of God.

Confession? It is only the priest who is the means by which we are reconciled to God through the outpouring of the Blood of the Lamb that cleanses our souls and consciences of sin and guilt that weighs us down so heavily. Finally we can experience true peace of soul!

First Holy Communion? It is the priest who celebrated Holy Mass, confected the Eucharist and gave us the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus the Lord.

Confirmation? It was the Bishop, who has the fullness of the priesthood, who confirmed us by which we were fortified by the presence of the Holy Spirit, ready to be soldiers of Christ to both spread and defend the faith.

Holy Matrimony? It was most likely the priest who sat down explaining the sublime vocation of Holy Matrimony, the importance of being faithful until death do we part and the importance of being open to life and bringing forth children into the world so that one day they will be eternal citizens of Heaven.

Anointing of the Sick? It is the priest that we spontaneously call when someone is seriously is ill. It is the priest who anoints them with holy oil by which they are strengthened to fight the good fight and unite their sufferings to the sufferings of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Death and burial? We all must pass through the gateway of death and pass from the realms of time into eternity. It is the priest, acting in the person of Christ, while celebrating Holy Mass, who offers the Victim Jesus to the Father for the purification and salvation of this immortal soul.

Our Lady. Let us then turn to Our Lady who is the Mother of God, the Mother of the Church, the Mother of all mankind, but especially she is the Mother of priests. Let us beg Our Lady to place her mantle of love and protection and comfort over all priests so that they would be protected from the fiery darts of the enemy, also that they would be protected from the devil of discouragement. Let us beg Our Lady to pray for priests that they would strive with all of the energy in their minds, hearts and souls to conform themselves to Jesus the High and eternal priest. And also that Jesus is very close to them as their best Friend in time and He will be their best Friend in heaven for all eternity.

Novena Prayer in Honor of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Please pray this prayer from August 7th-15th

Majestic Queen assumed into Heaven, Mary, Mistress of the Angels, you received from God the power and commission to crush the head of satan. We, therefore, humbly beseech you to send forth the angelic legions of Heaven, that under your command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence and hurl them back into hell.

Most High Queen of the universe, Mary, Ever Virgin, you who bore the Incarnate Word, Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior of all mankind, intercede for us and for those who have commended their prayer intentions to us.

O Mary, Mother of God, and our own good and tender Mother, you shall always be our hope and the object of our love.

Holy Archangels and Angels of God, defend us and lead us to heaven. Amen.

Mary, assumed into Heaven, pray for us!

REVIEW YOUR FAITH

When does a person sin by despair?

A person sins by despair when he deliberately refuses to trust that God will give him the necessary help to save his soul.

An example would be a man who commits sins in business to make more money, because he refuses to trust that God will help him to provide for his family. God is offended when we refuse to trust in His love and care for us.
