

During the month of NOVEMBER all Masses will be said for ALL SOULS with the exception of the Missa Pro Populo (Mass for the People) on Sundays

REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONES

All of the Masses in November will be said for All Souls. The All Souls envelopes are in the pews and the back of the church. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to remember your loved ones!

Write the name of your deceased loved ones on the All Souls envelope and place it in the collection basket during Mass. All of the envelopes will be placed on the Altar for the whole month of November.

INDULGENCES FOR THE POOR SOULS

Current regulations enforced by Pope Benedict XVI

On all the days from November 1st through November 8th inclusive, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed.

Conditions for both indulgences:

1. Only one plenary indulgence can be gained per day.
2. It is necessary to be in the state of grace, at least by completion of the work.
3. Freedom from attachment to sin, even venial sin, is necessary, otherwise the indulgence is only partial. (By this is meant attachment to a particular sin, not sin in general.)
4. Holy Communion must be received each time the indulgence is sought.
5. Prayers must be recited for the intentions of the Holy Father on each day the indulgence is sought. (No particular prayers are prescribed. One Our Father and one Hail Mary suffice, or other suitable prayers.)
6. A sacramental confession must be made within a week of completion of the prescribed work. (One confession made during the week, made with the intention of gaining all the indulgences suffices.)

All have a Duty to Pray for the POOR SOULS

Pray for the deceased, so that when they shall have attained Heaven, they will not fail to pray for you... They who are laying, in torments cry out to us daily and few answer them; they utter their mournful plea, and there is none to comfort them.

How awful a cruelty! Truly, this is a great inhumanity!

Consider for a moment: if a man lying ill on his bed cries out in pain, his suffering is relieved by the doctor!...a donkey falls, and all hastened to help him up; but a member of the faithful cries out in torments, and none answer his plea!

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

The life of Dr. Bernard Nathanson reminds us that change is always possible, even profound change. Science prompted him to publicly profess in 1974 that as director of “the largest abortion clinic in the Western world,” I had, “in fact presided over 60,000 deaths.” He presented that reality in his film, “The Silent Scream” that captured the image of an unborn child shrinking from the surgical instruments of an abortionist, an image that Nathanson called, “the silent scream of a child threatened imminently with extinction.”

SUPPORT THE UNBORN WITH SAN SECONDO PRO LIFE - Nov. 14th

Our Pro Life Ministry prays at the Montclair Abortion clinic every second Saturday of the month starting 9:00 AM. (5050 Palo Verde St., Montclair, CA 91763) .

"TRUTH" - A FREE MINI CONFERENCE FOR WOMEN - DEC. 20th

As daughters of God we have a supreme vocation as both Bride and Mother. Women are called to be in their innermost and deepest self a sign of the Church. Yolanda Rodriguez will be giving two special talks on the Spirituality of Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. She will be delving deep into the truths of who we are as daughters of the Most High God, and helping women to discover the truth in themselves and their Supreme Vocation. This free mini conference will be held on Sunday, December 20th at 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM in our Parish Hall. For more information or to RSVP please contact Yolanda Rodriguez at yolandamarie91@yahoo.com. If attending, please bring a potluck dish to share with the other women.

The Temple of Stones is a Symbol of the Living Church

Today [in 2008 and again Tomorrow 2015] the liturgy celebrates the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, called “mother and head of all the churches of the city and the world.” In fact, this basilica was the first to be built after Emperor Constantine’s edict, in 313, granted Christians freedom to practice their religion.

The emperor himself gave Pope Miltiades the ancient palace of the Lateran family, and the basilica, the baptistery, and the patriarchate, that is, the Bishop of Rome’s residence — where the Popes lived until the Avignon period — were all built there. The basilica’s dedication was celebrated by Pope Sylvester around 324 and was named Most Holy Savior; only after the 6th century was the names of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist added, and now is typically denominated by these latter.

Initially the observance of this feast was confined to the city of Rome; then, beginning in 1565, it was extended to all the Churches of the Roman rite. The honoring of this sacred edifice was a way of expressing love and veneration for the Roman Church, which, as St. Ignatius of Antioch says, “presides in charity” over the whole Catholic communion (Letter to the Romans, 1:1).

On this solemnity the Word of God recalls an essential truth: the temple of stones is a symbol of the living Church, the Christian community, which in their letters the Apostles Peter and Paul already understood as a “spiritual edifice,” built by God with “living stones,” namely, Christians themselves, upon the one foundation of Jesus Christ, who is called the “cornerstone” (cf. 1 Corinthians 3:9-11, 16-17; 1 Peter 2:4-8; Ephesians 2:20-22). “Brothers, you are God’s building,” St. Paul wrote, and added: “holy is God’s temple, which you are” (1 Corinthians 3:9c, 17).

The beauty and harmony of the churches, destined to give praise to God, also draws us human beings, limited and sinful, to convert to form a “cosmos,” a well-ordered structure, in intimate communion with Jesus, who is the true Saint of Saints. This happens in a culminating way in the Eucharistic liturgy, in which the “ecclesia,” that is, the community of the baptized, come together in a unified way to listen to the Word of God and nourish themselves with the Body and Blood of Christ. From these two tables the Church of living stones is built up in truth and charity and is internally formed by the Holy Spirit transforming herself into what she receives, conforming herself more and more to the Lord Jesus Christ. She herself, if she lives in sincere and fraternal unity, in this way becomes the spiritual sacrifice pleasing to God.

Dear friends, today’s feast celebrates a mystery that is always relevant: God’s desire to build a spiritual temple in the world, a community that worships Him in spirit and truth (cf. John 4:23-24). But this observance also reminds us of the importance of the material buildings in which the community gathers to celebrate the praises of God. Every community therefore has the duty to take special care of its own sacred buildings, which are a precious religious and historical patrimony. For this we call upon the intercession of Mary Most Holy, that she help us to become, like her, the “house of God,” living temple of his love.
