CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

Pope Benedict began the Advent journey in 2010 with a prayer for life and a defense of the human embryo, noting that science itself has demonstrated the truth: "It is not a question of a collection of biological material, but of a new individual of the human species. This is how Jesus was in Mary's womb; this is how we each were in our mother's wombs." – The Southern Cross, 12/10.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE POMONA UPDATE!

3 babies (that we know of) have been saved from abortion so far since February 18th! Thanks to everyone who has joined us in the prayer vigil outside the Planned Parenthood in Pomona and all of those who have been praying and fasting that lives may be saved from abortion!

Diocesan Development Fund - Second Collection TODAY!

We would like to THANK everyone who donated to our 2014 DDF Appeal last year. Because of your sacrifice and generosity we exceeded our goal by $18,150.16. This overage will be applied directly into our 2015 DDF. We will be having a second collection for our 2015 DDF this weekend! We still need a 100% participation so please prayerfully consider your donation. God bless you for your support.

FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT - MOVED TO APRIL 18th

The Life of Christ and the Celebration of the Mass

Denys the Carthusian (1402-71) wrote: "The whole life of Christ which He lived upon earth was one long celebration of the Mass, He himself being the altar, the priest, and the victim."

It may be said that our Lord put on the priestly vestments when, hidden from sight in His Mother's womb, He took our flesh and assumed the garb of mortality.

Issuing thence, on the night of His birth, as from the sacristy, He began, on His entrance into the world, the "Introit", which is the commencement of the Mass.

The cries He uttered in the crib were the "Kyrie Eleison." The "Gloria" was sung by the angels who appeared to the shepherds and accompanied them to the stable at Bethlehem.

The "Collect" represents the petition He offered when He spent days and nights in prayer, imploring for us the mercy of God.

The "Epistle" represents the instructions He gave on the prophecies of Moses and of the prophets, showing how they were fulfilled in Himself.

He read the "Gospel" when He traversed the country of Judea, proclaiming His Divine Doctrine.

The "Offertory" was when He daily made an oblation of Himself to God the Father for the Redemption of mankind.

The "Sanctus" was sung by the Hebrew people on Palm Sunday, when they cried: Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the Highest!" (Matt. 21:9)

The "Consecration" took place at the Last Supper, when He changed bread and wine into His body and blood.

The "Elevation" took place when He was lifted up upon the cross and was made a spectacle of, before angels and before men.

The "Our Father" represents the seven words He uttered on the cross.

The "Breaking of the Host" represents the separation of His sacred soul and body.

The "Agnus Dei" was spoken by the centurion and those who were with Him, when, smiting their breasts, they confessed: "Indeed this was the Son of God." (Matt 27:54.)

The "Communion" represents the Last Supper and the Apostles' Communion, as well as the anointing of our Lord's body and laying it in the tomb.

The "Blessing" at the conclusion of Mass represents the benediction the Risen Savior gave to His disciples when he was about to ascend into heaven.

NO KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BREAKFAST TODAY

Due to the first Sunday falling on Easter, the Knights of Columbus will not be having their monthly breakfast today.

Modesty

"Clothes should conceal, not reveal the figure of the wearer. Mary is always fully clothed in her appearances. When Jesus, in His dying breath, bequeathed to us His own Blessed Mother as our own Mother, He addressed us this precious little sentence, 'Behold thy Mother!' Yes, Behold—look at, admire, study, contemplate, imitate your Mother!" -- Immodest Dress. The Mind of the Church by Louise Martin

The Hope of Easter

The Cross had asked the question; the Resurrection had answered them... The Cross had asked: "Why does God permit evil and sin to nail Justice to a tree?" The Resurrection answered: "That sin, having done its worst, might exhaust itself and thus be overcome by Love that is stronger than either sin or death."

Thus there emerges the Easter lesson that the power of evil and the chaos of any one moment can be defied and conquered, for the basis of our hope is not in any construct of human power, but in the power of God, who has given to the evil of this earth its one mortal wound---an open tomb, a gaping sepulcher, and empty grave.

---Fulton J. Sheen, Cross-Ways

REVIEW YOUR FAITH

What must we do to love God, our neighbor and ourselves?

To love God, our neighbor and ourselves we must keep the commandments of God and of the Church and perform the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

This spiritual and corporal works of mercy are acts of love which we show to Christ in the members of His Mystical Body. Whatever we do for a member of the Body of Christ, we do for Christ. And we can help non-Catholics to become members of Christ's Body by the love we show towards them.

As Our Lord Himself says, "As long as you did it for one of these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me." (Matt. 25, 40).

Remember: Spiritual Works of Mercy

- To admonish the sinner
- To instruct the ignorant
- To counsel the doubtful
- To comfort the sorrowful
- To bear wrongs patiently
- To forgive all injuries
- To pray for the living and the dead
