Phil 2:8-11

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

Although most research has focused on the negative effects of abortion on women, there is another, often overlooked victim: the father. Although some fathers may push the pregnant mother into choosing abortion, there are others who desperately want their baby to live. Imagine the helplessness of these fathers unable to save the life of their unborn child—a situation that can lead to long-term mental health issues.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BREAKFAST MOVED!

Due to our Corpus Christi celebration falling on the first Sunday of June the Knights of Columbus Monthly Breakfast has been moved to June 14th. Hope to see you there!

MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
CORPUS CHRISTI
June 7th, 2015

The Bread of Life

Christ declared on that occasion. “He who comes to me will never be hungry. He who believes in me will never thirst. But, as I have told you, you can see me and still you do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me and whoever comes to me, I shall not turn him away because I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but to do the will of the one who sent me. Now the will of him who sent me is that I should lose nothing of all that he has given to me and that I should raise it up on the last day. Yes, it is my Father’s will that whoever sees the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life and that I shall raise him up on the last day.”

The simplest way to express what Christ asks us to believe about the Real Presence is that the Eucharist is really He.

We are to believe that the Eucharist is Jesus Christ---simply, without qualification. It is God become man in the fullness of His divine nature, in the fullness of His human nature, in the fullness of His body and soul, in the fullness of everything that makes Jesus Jesus. He is in the Eucharist with His human mind and will united with the Divinity, with His hands and feet, His face and features, with His eyes and lips and ears and nostrils, with His affections and emotions and, with emphasis, with His living, pulsating, physical Sacred Heart. That is what our Catholic Faith demands of us that we believe.

There is a prayer in the Coptic Liturgy that I think perfectly answers the first question we are asking. “What do I believe when I believe in the Real Presence?” The prayer goes as follows, a little long, but worth it:

I believe and I will confess to my last breath that this is the living bread which Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, took from our Lady and the Queen of Mankind, the holy, sinless Virgin Mary, Mother of God. He made it one with His Godhead without confusion or change. He witnessed before Pontius Pilate and was of His own free will condemned in our place to the holy tree. Truly I believe that His Godhead was not separated from His manhood for a moment, not even for the twinkle of an eye. He gave His body for the remission of our sins and for eternal life to those who partake of this body. I believe, I believe, I believe that this is in very truth that body. Amen.”

--Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.

CORPUS CHRISTI – TODAY!

Come and join us as we celebrate this great Solemnity of Corpus Christi, (the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ). Today our celebration of Corpus Christi will begin with a Procession at 12:30PM, Holy Mass at 2:00PM, followed by an International buffet.

ADULT RCIA CLASSES – June 14th

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or converting? Are you an adult who still needs to receive Baptism, First Holy Communion or Confirmation? Would you like to brush up on what our Holy Church teaches and why? If so, then RCIA is for you! Classes will be held on Sundays at 9:00 AM in the Parish Hall.

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED

Due to mandatory Diocesan meetings the Parish Office will be closed on the following Mondays, June 8th and the 15th.

LATIN HIGH MASS FOR THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS
Friday, June 12th - Sacred Heart of Jesus: 7:00 PM

Modesty

“Since Catholic Churches contain Jesus’ Real Presence in the Tabernacle, they are the holiest places on earth; therefore, modesty must be specially observed in them. Modesty should also be specially observed in other sacred places (i.e. outdoor shrines, convents, rectories, seminaries, etc.)...Today, to observe proper norms for dress will often mean being different than others. Be mindful that it was daring individuals, who had no fear of the opinions of others, who introduced the improper, indecent and egalitarian fashions that are now destroying our once Christian culture. Therefore, it must be faithful Catholics (called to be the salt of the earth) who, reacting “firmly against the currents that are contrary to the best traditions.” Dare to lead our society back to that high standard of decency and harmonious diversity so pleasing to Our Lord and Our Lady. And thus even by their dress, they will prepare the world for the coming of God’s Kingdom!” --Those Who Serve God Should Not Follow the Fashions by Robert T. Hart

Prayer for Bishops

Most Glorious God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we pray for our Bishop, may he and all the bishops, in union with the Holy Father, remain steadfast in defending our Catholic Faith from the errors of relativism and anti-Christian hostility that deeply pervades our secular world. May they speak boldly in defense of religious freedom and oppose with great vigor those policies and unjust laws which violate the consciences of the faith...May our apostolic shepherds proclaim with a unified and prophetic voice the truth about the dignity of each human life, the sanctity of sacramental marriage, the blessing of life--giving conjugal love and all issues that the Church upholds as good. Allow them to preach with fiery conviction against all forms of oppression and may they never be afraid to call good and evil by their proper names. With unwavering fidelity and courage, may they imitate Christ and lay down their lives for their sheep. May they be faithful to the end like so many holy saints and martyrs of the Church, who have shepherded the people of God with crosier in hand. O Mary, Virgin Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, hold all bishops close to your Immaculate Heart! Amen.

Lest we forget and take for granted:
Corpus Christi—the Body of Christ!
I am the LIVING BREAD come down from Heaven –anyone who eats this Bread will live forever. The Bread that I will give IS My Flesh for the Life of the World!
