I Could Have Been
I could have been a Doctor, or a Lawyer, or a Cook,
I could have been the Author of an influential book,
I could have been a Teacher helping children to learn to read,
I could have been a Famer growing crops from just a seed.
I could have picked a dandelion upon a summer’s day,
And then with just my breath I could have blown it all away.
I could have caught a butterfly and kept it in a jar,
I could have sat up on my roof and wished upon a star.
I could have cuddled, cozy warm and sleeping in my bed,
I could have told a story while I stood upon my head.
I could have held a kitten,
I could have laughed out loud,
I could have made my Mommy and my Daddy very proud,
And if someone had told my Mother that abortion was a sin,
Perhaps she would have listened,
And then perhaps, I could have been!

Visit to the Blessed Sacrament

Do I seek Christ’s presence? His companionship everywhere?
Is He the King and Center of my Heart?
Is He the beginning; does He have first place in all things with me?
He is present in His Word that I should read and reread; He is present in the liturgy, where others are gathered with me; He is joined with me as food and life in Holy Communion.

He is in the tabernacle in our churches and chapels awaiting my visit in the still hours. Do I seek His presence?

I have been shocked by a spirit of activism in interpreting the spiritual life in our days. I have heard people, sisters, priests, speak critically of too much time spent in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, in the weekly Holy Hour, in private prayer and meditations; speaking critically in the spirit that today action is needed, that time is all too short for these devotions, so they say.

Some also say---see and seek Christ in others always and thereby prove your love for Christ by busying yourself constantly with the welfare and happiness of others.

How, honestly can I continue to have great love for Christ and see Him in others, in the unfortunate, unless I spend time with Him--- planning with Him---sometimes just listening and other times conscious of His disapproval.

He is there in the Mass when there is little time for personal private meditation; but He is there also in the tabernacle when I have time to listen to Him and speak with Him.

Have a lively faith and keep a sense of the supernatural. See Christ in all others, yes, but also seek His presence as often as you can in Holy Mass and Holy Communion and in the tabernacle where He awaits your personal visit, where He wants to hear your joy, your sorrow, your problems, your love. Seek Him further in Benediction and in public Holy periods of public veneration of the Blessed Sacrament.

He is always with you, but this lively faith needs the strength that comes from personal association also on your part.

--Archbishop Edward J. Hunkeler

REVIEW YOUR FAITH

Does the first commandment forbid us from honoring the saints in heaven?

The first commandment does not forbid us to honor the saints in heaven, provided we do not give them the honor that belongs to God alone.

How can we honor the saints?

We can honor the saints: First, by imitating their holy lives; Second, by praying to them; Third, by showing respect to their relics and images.
