CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer. --St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, No. 100

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children - January 22nd

The over 56 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." In all the Dioceses of the United States, January 22nd shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. We are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or giving alms.

The Most HOLY NAME

There is something very touching and intimate in the Scripture phrase, that God knows each of us by name. That concept is beyond comprehension and I tend to take note of a name, mine especially, rather casually—not of grave importance.

But God named His Son and then wanted each of us to know that name. So important, that He sent an Angel to deliver to Mary on earth, from heaven "...thou shalt call His name Jesus. “For He shall save His people from their sins.”

For the Christian this name stands for everything that makes life worth living—for hope, for pardon, for pity, for immortality.

It calls up one who is gentle, merciful, patient, loving; one who faced ignominy, indignities and death, that we might be saved; one who is all-holy, omnipotent, our Lord and master. By it the Church prays, by it we obtain victories over temptation; by it the saints triumph and souls are converted; in it sacraments are administered.

It is a name honored in heaven, on earth and even in hell: “I know Thee who, Thou art, the holy one of God” cried out the evil spirit.

What a change the name of Jesus has brought to human lives. The blind, the lame, the unwanted sick, the souls that had lost all hope—all heard it with quickening heart-beats; the leper crawled from his hut when he heard that Jesus was passing by, knowing there was one who would have pity and who could heal.

It was whispered in adoration in the catacombs and gave strength to the huddled Christians in the Roman circus for the beasts.

It is a name that thrills today as in the first day, a sign for attack or for burning loyalty.

It is a word of patience on the lips of sufferers, a word that calms the storms of temptation within the troubled heart, a word whispered for joy and strength into the ears of the dying, a word of hope and eternal life carved on stone above the graves of our dead. It is the name through which our prayers are heard.

To write one’s name in the soul of a child is a human and high ambition, but it is a greater thing to write the name of Jesus there. Parents ought to seek to instill this name in the soul of their children as they begin to grasp the first words of speech. There is no greater tyrants than those who, with a little scratching pen seek to erase His name from the hearts of the poor.
