CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

Writer Federica Mathewes-Green has pointed out that: “No woman wants an abortion as she wants an ice cream cone or a Porsche. She wants an abortion as an animal caught in a trap wants to gnaw off its own leg.”

40 Days for Life: Feb. 10th - March 20th

Abortion hurts women and kills babies. The Alan Guttmacher Institute reports that one out of three American women will have an abortion by the age of 45. The British Journal of Psychiatry reports that women who have had one or more abortions have an 81% increased risk of having mental health problems. More than 50 million babies have been aborted in the USA since 1973. When people pray and/or counsel outside abortion centers, hearts are changed and lives are saved, and some souls can be spared the tragedy of abortion.

40 Days for Life begins February 10th. Make your plans now to join the local prayer vigil outside the abortion center in Pomona and give the women planning their abortion hope in the life that God gives. Please sign up to pray for an hour or more each week on the public right of way outside Planned Parenthood (1550 N. Garey Ave, Pomona). Prayer vigil hours are from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM daily from February 10th through March 20th.

You can sign up at <https://40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/pomona>.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

More thoughts on Lenten ASHES

I have often thought that there is no more meaningful sacramental in the Church, than the placing of ashes on our foreheads at the beginning of Lent. In such a graphic way it calls to mind the fact of all facts, that our time on earth is limited, burning away, indication that we know not the day nor the hour when the Master will call—that the dying embers of our lives will extinguish.

It is so easy to imagine someone else dying, but it is most difficult to envision ourselves at death’s door. Twice I have been anointed. Twice in my fifty years of living I have been mercifully pulled back at the last moment, and given another chance at a new beginning. Coming so very close to death—wondering if I would live through the night—brought home to me the precious moment of time, the sanctity of each moment, the ardent desire to live my priestly commitment to the full.

When I suddenly came face to face with death, all those things that seemed so very important, just a day ago, or even a few hours earlier, faded quickly from view. As it were, I stood naked before my God. All pretense, all sham, all game playing with myself and with others fell before my eyes.

At that gravely serious moment in time, I prayed earnestly for another chance to render myself more pleasing to My Creator. If given a reprieve, I resolved to make every effort to heed the words of St. Paul, when he pledged to spend himself and be spent in loving service of His Master. I needed the extra time so that the words our Lord addressed to Mary Magdalen could someday be a comfort to me: “Many sins are forgiven you because you have loved so much.”

Not even God can change the past. The future is not mine to boast of. NOW is the precious time to rise from mediocrity of spirit—to greatness of spirit!

Years later, I pray to God for the courage, the insight, the vision to strive daily to show more sharing, more giving, a more loving priest, no matter what might be the personal cost of discipleship.

The burned ashes on my forehead brought this to mind—to pen.
 --Fr. A. Paraclete.

PRAYER BEFORE A DATE

Courtship is serious business; always seeking God's Will.
 O Mary, Mother of us all, you have taught us the meaning of true friendship by your constant concern for helping and pleasing others, especially Joseph and your own Divine Son.

Your life is a perfect example of genuine interest, generosity, courtesy, warmth and unselfishness.

Mary, please help us to make this date, strengthen true friendship in our hearts. Only then will it be worthy to be offered to your Son as a pledge of our respect for Him and for each other.

Help us to be an occasion of grace to each other and to all who share these hours with us. Protect us, body and soul. Make us aware of the presence of God in one another.

Keep us chaste, O Virgin most pure!
 Make us wise, O Virgin most prudent!

Brighten our date with laughter, O Cause of our Joy!

We will then be richer in mind and heart for having shared each other’s company.

We will be strengthened in true friendship for you, for your Son, and for each other, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
