DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
April 3rd, 2016

Simple Meditation

I asked God to take away my habit.
But God said, "No."
It is not for me to take it away,
but for you to give it up.

I asked God to make my handicapped child whole.
God said, "No."
His spirit is whole
His body is temporary.

I asked God to grant me patience.
God said, "No."
Patience is a byproduct of tribulations;
It isn't granted; it is learned.

I asked God to give me happiness.
God said, "No."
I give you blessings;
Happiness is up to you.

I asked God to spare me pain.
God said, "No."
Suffering draws you apart from worldly cares;
Brings you closer to me.

I asked God to make my spirit grow.
God said, "No."
You must grow on your own;
When you do, I will prune you to make you fruitful.

I asked God for all things that I might enjoy life.
God said, "No."
I will give you life,
So that you may enjoy all things.

I asked God to help me love others, as much as He loves me.
God said, "Ah, finally you have the idea."
And so, "May God Bless You," so that,
"To the world you might be one person, but to one person, you just might be their whole world."
Amen!

Modesty

“Especially scandalous is the wearing by both sexes of shorts in church—in the house of God! One can't help but wonder if Catholics who come to Church immodestly, or inappropriately, dressed haven't lost belief in the presence of Christ in our Churches. If Our Lord were to come back to earth now, in His Physical Body, to sit on a throne on the altar, would we go to the altar in shorts or other immodest or improper attire—to fall down in adoration before His Divine Presence?” -- Immodest Dress. The Mind of the Church by Louise Martin
