THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
May 22nd, 2016

The Spirit of the Lord fills the whole world, and holds all things together and knows every word spoken by man, Alleluia.
Wisdom 1:7

Our Lord instituted the first “novena”, or nine days of prayer. On the day of His Ascension, Jesus sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to pray. The Gospel of Luke tells us that on that day “He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, ‘Thus it is written that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high’” (Luke 24:45-49).

After the Lord’s Ascension, the apostles returned to Jerusalem, entered the upper room, and “all these with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brethren” (Acts 1:14). There, about 120 people, led by Peter, prayed for nine days in preparation for the day of Pentecost, the fiftieth day after the Resurrection, when the Holy Spirit came to them “with power from on high,” as the Lord has promised:

“And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the gust of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance” (Acts 2:2-4)

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says: “The traditional form of petition to the Holy Spirit is to invoke the Father through Christ our Lord to give us the Consoler Spirit. Jesus insists on this petition to be made in His name at the very moment when He promised the gift of the Spirit of Truth. But the simplest and most direct prayer is also traditional, ‘Come, Holy Spirit’ [Veni Sancte Spiritus], and every liturgical tradition has developed it in antiphons and hymns.”

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit
 Wisdom – Understanding – Counsel – Fortitude – Knowledge – Piety – Fear of the Lord

“There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Sprit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord” (Isaiah 11:1-3).

The Twelve Fruits of the Holy Spirit
 Charity – Joy – Peace- Patience – Kindness – Goodness – Generosity – Gentleness – Faithfulness – Modesty – Self-control – Chastity

The Catechism tells us that “the fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory”
