Persona Humana
Declaration of Certain Questions Concerning Sexual Ethics

At the present time there are those who, basing themselves on observations in the psychological order, have begun to judge indulgently, and even to excuse completely, homosexual relations between certain people. This they do in opposition to the constant teaching of the Magisterium and to the moral sense of the Christian people.

A distinction is drawn, and it seems with some reason, between homosexuals whose tendency comes from a false education, from a lack of normal sexual development, from habit, from bad example, or from other similar causes, and is transitory or at least not incurable; and homosexuals who are definitively such because of some kind of innate instinct or a pathological constitution judged to be incurable.

In regard to this second category of subjects, some people conclude that their tendency is so natural that it justifies in their case homosexual relations within a sincere communion of life and love analogous to marriage, in so far as such homosexuals feel incapable of enduring a solitary life.

In the pastoral field, these homosexuals must certainly be treated with understanding and sustained in the hope of overcoming their personal difficulties and their inability to fit into society. Their culpability will be judged with prudence. But no pastoral method can be employed which would give moral justification to these acts on the grounds that they would be consonant with the condition of such people. For according to the objective moral order, homosexual relations are acts which lack an essential and indispensable finality. In Sacred Scripture they are condemned as a serious depravity and even presented as the sad consequence of rejecting God. This judgment of Scripture does not of course permit us to conclude that all those who suffer from this anomaly are personally responsible for it, but it does attest to the fact that homosexual acts are intrinsically disordered and can in no case be approved of.

Novena Prayer in Honor of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Please Pray with us from August 7th - 15th

Majestic Queen Assumed into Heaven, Mary, Mistress of the Angels, you received from God the power and commission to crush the head of satan. We, therefore, humbly beseech you to send forth the angelic legions of Heaven, that under your command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence and hurl them back into hell.

Most High Queen of the Universe, Mary, Ever Virgin, you who bore the Incarnate Word, Jesus Christ, the Lord and Savior of all mankind, intercede for us and for those who have commended their prayer intentions to us.

O Mary, Mother of God, and our own Good and Tender Mother, You shall always be our hope and the object of our love.

Holy Archangels and Angels of God, defend us and lead us to Heaven. Amen.

Mary, assumed into Heaven, pray for us!
In a private revelation it was said, That on the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, more souls are released out of Purgatory than any other Feasts.

Modesty
"Husbands...be home with your wife, with your children. Lay down your lives for them. If you have young daughters and you don't spend time with them and take them on dates and know what is going on in their lives and if you let them dress immodestly to keep up with the other girls...if you don't teach them how beautiful their virtues are and you don't teach them their inner self worth and they think what they look like is going to be the basis of whether they will be expected or not, they will be in trouble."
