The Most HOLY NAME

There is something very touching and intimate in the Scripture phrase, that God knows each of us by name. That concept is beyond comprehension and I tend to take note of a name, mine especially, rather casually—not of grave importance.

But God named His Son and then wanted each of us to know that name. So important, that He sent an Angel to deliver to Mary on earth, from heaven “...thou shalt call His name Jesus. “For He shall save His people from their sins.”

For the Christian this name stands for everything that makes life worth living—for hope, for pardon, for pity, for immortality.

It calls up one who is gentle, merciful, patient, loving; one who faced ignominy, indignities and death, that we might be saved; one who is all-holy, omnipotent, our Lord and master. By it the Church prays, by it we obtain victories over temptation; by it the saints triumph and souls are converted; in it sacraments are administered.

It is a name honored in heaven, on earth and even in hell: “I know who Thou art, the holy one of God” cried out the evil spirit.

What a change the name of Jesus has brought to human lives. The blind, the lame, the unwanted sick, the souls that had lost all hope—all heard it with quickening heart-beats; the leper crawled from his hut when he heard that Jesus was passing by, knowing there was one who would have pity and who could heal.

It was whispered in adoration in the catacombs and gave strength to the huddled Christians in the Roman circus before the beasts.

It is a name that thrills today as in the first day, a sign for attack or for burning loyalty.

It is a word of patience on the lips of sufferers, a word that calms the storms of temptation within the troubled heart, a word whispered for joy and strength into the ears of the dying, a word of hope and eternal life carved on stone above the graves of our dead. It is the name through which our prayers are heard.

To write one’s name in the soul of a child is a human and high ambition, but it is a greater thing to write the name of Jesus there. Parents ought to seek to instill this name in the soul of their children as they begin to grasp the first words of speech. There is no greater tyrants than those who, with a little scratching pen seek to erase His name from the hearts of the poor.

--From “The Secret Scripture of the Poor”, by Fr. John Henaghan

Novena Prayer in Honor of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Please Pray with us from August 7th - 15th
Majestic Queen Assumed into Heaven, Mary, Mistress of the Angels, you received from God the power and commission to crush the head of satan. We, therefore, humbly beseech you to send forth the angelic legions of Heaven, that under your command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence and hurl them back into hell.

Most High Queen of the Universe, Mary, Ever Virgin, you who bore the Incarnate Word, Jesus Christ, the Lord and Savior of all mankind, intercede for us and for those who have commended their prayer intentions to us.
O Mary, Mother of God, and our own Good and Tender Mother, You shall always be our hope and the object of our love.
Holy Archangels and Angels of God, defend us and lead us to Heaven. Amen.

Mary, assumed into Heaven, pray for us!
In a private revelation it was said, that on the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, more souls are released out of Purgatory than any other Feasts.
